

TRACKIN'

Spring Brooks and
Mark Robinson

1.

Riding this train; the towns passing by

A picture of stories run through my mind

I don't know if I come or I go

But I need to keep moving

Chorus:

These rides seem longer as life grows shorter

Why do we only ever ask for one more chance?

['Cause] I need two; one for me, and one for you

Interlude:

Passing through Nostalgia

Over bridges with no water

Through seasons that never grow

The looming dark conceals the past

Hasty light streaks by

I only know the world you gave me

Burned by pain soaked fire

Time is fleeting

Stuck in my idle ways

Braked by the joy of my pain

It's only me

I only know the world you gave me

Trackin'

Just need to keep moving

2.

Thought I would change but it's taking so long

Prayed you would stay, when I could have just asked

Now I know I've been wrong so many times

And there ain't no turning back

Chorus:
